Frequently asked questions about renting through Property First Edinburgh

I want to rent the property, how do I proceed?

Firstly, you must view the property or virtual tour before you can be considered. If you are not able to view the property in person, we will accept someone viewing on your behalf.

Here at Property First we do not operate on a first come, first serviced basis. In the interest of fairness to all parties you are required to apply for the property. For convenience, our application can be found and completed on our website.

All offers for a property will be put to the landlord to decide on which offer to proceed with. As you know rental properties can attract interest from multiple parties. If you find yourself in this situation it can help to offer slightly more for the monthly rent, all other things being equal.

How many applications do I need to submit?

Each person over the age of 18 years old must complete an application.

Do you charge tenancy fees?

No. That it is illegal to charge anything other than rent or deposit.

Is referencing required?

Yes.

If your application is taken to the next stage all applicants are required to provide referencing.

We require a credit check, employer reference and previous landlord references. If you were a homeowner or self-employed alternative documents will be requested.

We will look for applicants to be permanently employed and meet the affordability criteria of their gross monthly income (combined if more than one tenant) meets at least 2.5 times the monthly rent. If this is not the case, the landlord may still proceed but expect the applicant to provide a UK based guarantor or multiple months rent in advance.

Your Guarantor would also be required to undergo the tenant referencing checks.

To find out more about who can be a guarantor, check out this article from Housing Hand:

www.housinghand.co.uk/news/who-can-be-rent-guarantor/

When is referencing required?

When the landlord has decided to proceed with your application pending referencing.

What Identification do I need to provide?

Photographic Identification.

You must be able to provide a copy of a valid passport or other photographic ID.

We will also require proof of your current address in the form of a utility bill or bank statement from your current address dated within the last 3 months.

How much security deposit will I pay?

We normally ask for 1.5 month's rent unless agreed with the landlord otherwise. The security deposit will be held by Safe Deposit Scotland for the duration of your tenancy.

What type of tenancy will I have?

If you are renting as a private individual, you will have a Private Residential Tenancy Agreement (PRT)

If there is more than one tenant named on the Tenancy Agreement, then those tenants are 'joint and severally' liable during a tenancy agreement. This means that all the tenants and guarantors on the tenancy agreement are jointly responsible for all tenancy liabilities including rent or any breach of tenancy.

If a tenant wishes to serve notice to end your tenancy you must have agreement from any joint tenants before doing so - you cannot simply give notice to vacate if there are other tenants liable under a joint tenancy.

When can I sign the tenancy agreement?

Once referencing is finalised.

For convenience and a move towards being paperless, the agreement signing process is digital.

How many sets of keys will I receive?

Each tenant named on the Tenancy agreement will be provided with 1 set of keys.

Will I be provided with an inventory?

Yes.

Our inventory contains details of fixtures, fittings and contents of the property.

You will have 7 days to check, write comments, sign and return after you move into the property.

Do you carry out inspections during my tenancy?

Yes, we do.

We have a contractual agreement with every landlord to carry out mid tenancy property inspections. You will be notified of any inspections via email prior to them being carried out.

Please note we take photographs of the property during these inspections.
